

OHIO MEDIATION ASSOCIATION

ANNUAL MEETING
SAVE THE DATE!
FRIDAY, May 19, 2017

Tanya Menon, Associate Professor

Fisher College of Business

The Ohio State University

8:45—12:00 p.m.

OMA Business Meeting

12:00—1:30 p.m.

Jerome Weiss, Esq.

Mediation Inc.

1:30—4:45 p.m.

It's a Win/Win!

Learn from the best

Get your education credits

Attend Annual Membership Meeting

Vote on Mediator Credentialing Proposal

Network/socialize with colleagues

Free parking and lunch provided

Fawcett Center, 2400 Olentangy River Road

Presentation Topics

Dr. Tanya Menon is a noted researcher on the psychology of negotiation and will deliver a multimedia presentation on how mediators can use questions to influence disputants, avoid communications traps, and spur creative problem-solving. Participants will receive a free copy of Dr. Menon's latest book.

Jerome Weiss is an esteemed mediation practitioner and a globetrotting lecturer in Cleveland who will describe the finer points of the mediator's toolbox, including tone and body language, the strategy of small shifts, impasse-breaking methods, effective use of numbers, bracketing, different mediator roles, and the subtle influences of trust, bias, risk aversion, technology, reactivism, and related brain science.

Member Registration Before May 1, 2017: $65.00 for half day; $110.00 for full day. Late and Non-Member Registration: $80.00 for half day and $140.00 for full day. Lunch included for half-day or full day sessions. Registration opens at 8:00 a.m.

www.mediateohio.org

