Mediation.com is informing you about the email. Message for: [REDACTED] REPLY TO [REDACTED], [REDACTED]@gmail.com Phone: [REDACTED] Location: Palo Alto, CA Message: I'm looking for a mediator that can or is willing to accommodate a few unique circumstances: 1) I recently moved from NV to CA; 2) my ex lives in NV; 3) my child currently goes to school in NV; 4) my divorce was done through mediation; 5) I currently have joint legal and physical custody of my pre-teenager; 6) I would like to bring my child to CA for better quality of life and better education in 2016. Can we set up a free consultation in the weeks to come? Can mediation be done during phone/video conferences since my ex and I are in two different locations? Can mediation be done in the evening or on weekends? Thank you.

Mediation.com is informing you about the email. Message for: Daniel W. Koenig REPLY TO [REDACTED] [REDACTED], [REDACTED] Phone: [REDACTED] Location: Chapel Hill, NC Message: Hi Daniel, I hope that you are doing well. I moved out May 2nd and the kids and I are living in Chapel Hill. My "husband" is currently living in the house in Winston Salem. The mortgage is in my name but I am pretty sure that his name is on the deed. I also have the kids (3), Monday thru Friday and their Dad has them only three weekends a month (Friday night, returns them Sunday). He currently gives me money when I ask but no set child support amount. We have been avoiding tackling these issues. I know that Scott cannot afford the child support amount on the NC Child Support chart but frankly the kids have needs, so he should pay something. I also do not know what to do about the house. He does not want to sell it but I want my name off of it. I am willing to work with him but I believe that we need a mediator because I am scared that I am going to sell myself short because I want to get things over with. Can you help? What do you charge? I would prefer to stay out of court. Thanks! [REDACTED]

Mediation.com is informing you about the email. Message for: Molly Gutcher REPLY [REDACTED], [REDACTED]@gmail.com Phone: [REDACTED] Location: Tampa, FL Message: Hello Molly, I am seeking a mediator to modify the existing Child Custody agreement currently in effect with my Ex regarding our 5 year old son, [REDACTED]. Substantive changes have occurred: 1. She was in school and unemployed when the original agreement was made. She has completed school and is now working. 2. I Pay for all expenses, Medical, Dental, Extra-Activities, pay half the 840.00 a month to [REDACTED], and pay for at least half or more of the expense of his clothes. More importantly, 3. She has introduced a man and his children to [REDACTED]. This has been ongoing for perhaps longer than a month and I was never informed. We equally split overnights per month and am not wanting that to change. I am seeking Joint Custody as she is primary now on paper. This was done to justify the money paid to her each month. I am seeking word modification in the agreement that stipulates we keep each informed when introducing a companion to [REDACTED]. Provide a basic background on the individual and the intentions of the relationship. I am seeking word modification that stipulates residency remain a joint decision. We both live in the [REDACTED] Elementary School district. One can leave but not force a change of residence on the other. My cell is [REDACTED]. thank you, [REDACTED]

██████████, ██████████@gmail.com Phone: ██████████ Location: waupun, wi Message:

Hello. My name is ██████████. I received ulnar nerve entrapment from a nurse who was trying to put an I.V. in my elbow. This happened Nov.12, or 14, 2012. I just recently found out that I could file a medical malpractice lawsuit for my ulnar nerve entrapment/cubital tunnel syndrome. I was informed there is an upcoming deadline on Nov.12, or 14, 2015 in which I must have a certain form filed to be able to continue with my lawsuit. I realize this is short notice to start a lawsuit, but I was told that if I get this certain form filed by this date that it would make me remain illegible to continue with my claim. On Nov.12, or 14, 2012 a nurse from the hospital in the Outpatient Oncology I.V. department tried inserting an I.V. into my elbow and missed the vein and hit my ulnar nerve. Instantly I felt severe pain and an electric shock sensation go down my arm. She tried 1 more time to insert the I.V. in my hand, unsuccessfully. At that point the I.V. nurse contacted my primary care doctor and sent me to see her the same day. My primary care doctor sent me to see a specialist who diagnosed me with ulnar nerve entrapment/cubital tunnel syndrome. When I left the specialist's office he handed me a piece of paper with my diagnosis on it and told me to keep it. The specialist said he would send a report to my primary care doctor. The next appointment I had with my primary care doctor I asked her what the specialist's diagnosis was and she told me that there was nothing wrong and everything was fine. During the following year I had a home health care nurse come to my home once a week and every week she asked what new symptoms I had from the injury and had me rate the pain. The home health nurse documented a report every week and sent a report to my primary care doctor every week expecting the doctor to respond back and she never did. Now my injury has gotten so bad that my last 2 fingers have become claw shaped, numb, and ice cold. I have very limited use of my arm and hand. I get sharp pain from my elbow shooting to my hand when I try to do household chores. From the side of my wrist down to the end of my pinky finger it is ice cold and numb. I drop items out of my hand without even realizing it. I don't have enough strength in my arm and hand to be able to hold on to items for more than a short time. During the course of this period of time my primary care doctor did not take the specialist's recommendation of surgery or she didn't try any other kind of treatment. Because of this my fingers are now claw shaped and I am in constant pain from my elbow to my hand, while trying to perform tasks or just sitting. I only have a short time to start a lawsuit by getting a form filed by Nov.12, or 14, 2015, so would you please reply A.S.A.P. if you will take my case. Please don't let the doctor and nurse get away with what has been done to me because I don't feel it is fair that I will be like this the rest of my life. They knew without treatment what would progressively happen to my injury. Thank you. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Phone:1-[REDACTED].

Mediation.com is informing you about the email. Message for: Li-Shann Durst REPLY TO [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]@ey.com Phone: [REDACTED] Location: Herndon, VA

Message: Dear Mrs. Durst, My husband and I have been separated for over a year and have worked with a mediator to prepare a Memorandum of Understanding. Neither of us is interested in arguing or disputing anything we have agreed up on. We are at good terms with each other and are co-parenting our children as friends and without any issues. We now need to find a lawyer that would file our divorce decree with the Fairfax Courts. Also, we understand that a QDRO form will have to be filed in regards to claiming retirement funds. Would you be able to represent the both of us and file the paperwork for us with the courts? We are looking forward to hearing from you. Thank you.

Mediation.com is informing you about the email. Message for: Sana Ayubi REPLY TO ██████████ ██████████, ██████████@yahoo.com Phone: ██████████ Location: Atlanta, GA Message: Dear Ms. Ayubi: I was referred to you by Christopher ██████████ who spoke highly of your experience with Labor and Employment Law/. I was recently terminated from my job with ██████████ where I worked for 21 years in the Deli Department. I was told after my dismissal that my termination was due to theft., I have the encounter referenced by HR on tape – and I did not steal any items from the Deli. I believe this firing was due in part to my age 55 and the desire by ██████████ to hire employees at a lesser pay scale .I have not filed a claim with the EEOC and I am receiving unemployment. The Department of Labor agreed that this was a questionable termination and denied ██████████ appeal of my benefits. I have evidence that I was wrongfully terminated. This includes video and testimony from other Managers. I am represented by a Union for ██████████ but it will take many months for them to conduct a review of my case. I would like to meet with you to discuss my potential case against ██████████ and my desire to be treated fairly. I am financially able to hire an Attorney to ensure that I am represented and my best interests are honored. You can reach me by phone or email as listed above. I hope to hear back from you. Sincerely, ██████████ R. ██████████

Why Should I Use Mediation for My Paternity Action?

Let the Experts in Mediation Answer Your Frequently Asked Questions

Sheila Engum
Bonifay, FL
850-547-1700

The paternity suit is usually the initial legal matter between parents. Starting the process with mediation can help the parties establish a cooperative spirit. Matters regarding child custody, visitation, parenting plans and child support can be established through the mediation process. Parties who help draft their own agreements are more likely to comply with them than parties who only reached the agreement after contentious litigation. Additionally, mediation can help them develop more thorough agreements than a standard court order may, such as including provisions regarding how to resolve communication issues.
