Family Mediation vs Family Litigation (9/08/20)

Marian Grande

Many people assume that the only way to resolve a family law matter is to retain counsel and commence a Court action. This is a wrong assumption.

No Mo Fo Mo (9/08/20)

Jonathan Rodrigues

All you need to know is – there is No Mo Fo Mo. Everything prior to 2019 B.C. (Before Corona) was a rehearsal; we are now living in the real digital age.

Zoom Fatigue Uncovers Mediators' Secret Weapon (9/05/20)

Clare Fowler

As more mediators practice via Zoom and experience Zoom fatigue, they are discovering something about themselves.

Racial Justice Conflict: How “Historical” Racial Symbols Shape Perception, Practices, and Policy (9/03/20)

Judy Rashid

As the world continues to grapple with racial injustice and unrest as masses of people from all ethnicities protest in the streets, this article examines the subliminal influence

Mediate.com Directory Search

The screenshot displays the Mediate.com website's search interface. At the top, the Mediate.com logo is on the left, and a search bar on the right contains the text 'Find A: Mediator' and a dropdown menu for 'Select Type of Matter'. Below this, a row of input fields includes 'Enter City', 'Area Code', 'State/Prov', and 'Last Name', followed by an orange 'Search' button. A navigation bar below the search bar lists various categories: ALL CONTENT | ABOUT MEDIATION | CIVIL | COMMERCIAL | COMMUNITY | ELDER | FAMILY | ODR | PUBLIC POLICY | WORKPLACE. On the left side, a vertical menu lists site features: Home, Find Mediators, Mediators by City, Referral to ADR Professional, All Content, Mediation in Today's News, Blogs, Videos, Search Content, Marketplace, Calendar, Our Services (highlighted), Join as Premium Member, Certification, Featured Placement, and Statewide Banners. The main content area is titled 'Locate A Mediator Directory' and includes a 'Select Language' dropdown. Below the title are social media icons for Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, and Google+. To the right of these icons is a link that says 'JOIN THE MEDIATE.COM DIRECTORY'. The central part of the page features a world map with a search overlay. This overlay includes a 'Find:' dropdown set to 'Mediator', a 'Select Type of Matter' dropdown, and a section for 'Geographic Options' with fields for 'Enter City', 'Enter Area Code', 'Enter County', and a 'Select State or Province' dropdown. Below these is a 'UNITED STATES' dropdown. A 'More Search Options' section includes fields for 'Business Name' and 'Last Name', and an 'Additional Services' dropdown. An orange 'Search' button is at the bottom of the overlay.

Description of Practice

If Simon Mediation's Brentwood headquarters aren't convenient for you, Dan or his colleagues can meet you in your neighborhood anywhere in California for no extra charge. Dan provides transformative mediation of all types of disputes. He'll support you in having a high quality conversation about your situation. He'll help you gain clarity about the possibilities and about each other. He is the author of the chapter on divorce mediation in the Institute for the Study of Conflict Transformation's ("ISCT") TRANSFORMATIVE MEDIATION SOURCEBOOK.

Dan is the Immediate Past Chair of the Minnesota State Bar Association's Alternative Dispute Resolution Section. He also serves on the Minnesota Supreme Court's ADR Ethics Board (which is responsible for upholding the ethical standards of ADR providers). He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Institute for the Study of Conflict Transformation. He has trained mediators throughout the country for the ISCT, the U.S. Postal Service, and as an Adjunct Professor at the Hofstra University School of Law.
